Welcome to Preparing for Outpouring – A 10-Day Journey Toward Pentecost. Whether you’ve followed Jesus for years or are still exploring what you believe, this journey is for you. Preparing for Outpouring is a 10-day devotional designed to help us slow down, reflect, and open our hearts to the presence and power of the Holy Spirit. Scripture tells us that Jesus has “given the Spirit without limit” (John 3:34), and He came to share that same Spirit freely—with anyone willing to receive.

These ten days lead us toward Pentecost—a moment when God poured out His Spirit on ordinary people and launched a movement that would change the world. Each day includes a scripture, a short devotional, a prayer, space for reflection, and a “Gather Around the Table” prompt for conversation.

We pray this guide would stir hunger in your heart for more of the Holy Spirit. If you'd like to go deeper, we invite you to join us each day to read through the Book of Acts. These chapters show how the Spirit empowered everyday people, like us, to live with boldness, unity, and purpose. May their stories speak into yours.

DAY 1 – WEDNESDAY, MAY 28TH

GOD GIVES THE SPIRIT WITHOUT LIMIT

SCRIPTURE:

John 3:34 - “For He is sent by God. He speaks God’s words, for God gives Him the Spirit without limit.”

DEVOTIONAL:

Imagine someone offering you the best parts of themselves—their love, wisdom, strength, and presence—and promising to never run out, never hold back. That’s what Jesus offers through the Holy Spirit. Thousands of years ago, during a Jewish festival called Shavuot, the people celebrated when God gave the Law to Moses at Mount Sinai. It was a sacred moment—God sharing Himself through His words. But centuries later, during that very same festival—now known as Pentecost—Jesus fulfilled a deeper promise. This time, God didn’t give just words carved on stone, but His Spirit to dwell within hearts. John 3:34 says Jesus was filled with the Spirit without limit—and He came to share that limitless gift with us. The Holy Spirit isn’t a force or feeling. He’s the presence of God, given freely—not earned, not reserved for the ultra-religious—but offered to all who desire Him. If you’re unsure where you stand with God, know this: the Spirit is not far off. The cross opened the way, and the invitation is wide open. Jesus gives His Spirit to bring life, peace, and power to anyone willing to receive.

PRAYER:

Holy Spirit, Thank You for being a gift—not something we have to earn, but Someone we’re invited to receive. Whether we are full of faith or full of doubt, we ask You to come near. Draw us into the truth of who Jesus is. Let Your presence stir our hearts and renew our lives. We open ourselves to what You want to do. Come, Holy Spirit. We welcome You. Amen.

PERSONAL REFLECTION:

Have I ever experienced a love or presence that felt unlimited or unconditional? What was that like?

If God truly offers His Spirit without limit, how might that change the way I view faith or even my own life?

GATHER AROUND THE TABLE

Pentecost is rooted in a harvest festival. What does it mean to you to "receive" something from God—like His words or His Spirit? Can you think of a gift that changed your life?

A STEP DEEPER...

Read Acts 1-2

These chapters contain Christ's final words before ascending into heaven, and the beginning of the church. The disciples wait until the Holy Spirit is poured out at Pentecost, empowering them to boldly proclaim the gospel.

DAY 2 – THURSDAY, MAY 29TH

BE BAPTIZED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT

SCRIPTURE:

Acts 1:4-5 - "On one occasion, while He was eating with them, He gave them this command: "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift My Father promised, which you have heard Me speak about. 5 For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

DEVOTIONAL:

Imagine the disciples eating a final meal with Jesus before He ascended back to heaven. How many questions they must have wanted to ask Him, still in awe of His resurrection. He had told them before His death that it would be better that He goes, that the Holy Spirit, who is the Helper, would come (John 16:7). Jesus now shares that the culmination of the long-awaited promise that God would "put a new spirit" within them would soon come to pass! (Ez. 36:26). They will receive a new baptism, not just with water, but with God's very own Spirit! He would make His home within them and give them power for the greater works.

PRAYER:

Lord Jesus, thank You for the promise of Your Holy Spirit, Who is the Helper, Advocate, and Guide. We open our hearts to receive the promise of Your Spirit to come fill us today. We confess our need for Your help, power, grace, and wisdom. Please come and baptize us with the Holy Spirit to live the life you died and resurrected to give us all. Amen.

PERSONAL REFLECTION:

What is a time when I felt the anticipation of a good thing coming? What was that like?

What areas of my life do I want the Holy Spirit to touch and transform?

GATHER AROUND THE TABLE

Take a few moments to reflect and discuss where you have seen the Holy Spirit at work in your lives and home. End in a time of prayer asking for a fresh infilling of His presence.

A STEP DEEPER...

Read Acts 3-5

In these chapters, the Holy Spirit empowers bold healing, preaching, and unity in the early Church. Despite opposition, the disciples speak with courage and live with generosity—evidence of the Spirit at work.

DAY 3 – FRIDAY, MAY 30TH

BE MY WITNESSES

SCRIPTURE:

Acts 1:7-8 - "He said to them: "It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by His own authority. 8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

DEVOTIONAL:

Before Jesus ascended into heaven, He gave His followers one last charge—not a detailed plan, but a powerful promise: You will receive power... and you will be My witnesses. He didn't say, "Try harder." He said, "You'll receive something that will make it possible." A witness simply shares what they've seen and heard—something real, something personal. That's what Jesus invited His followers to do: to tell His story through their own lives. He didn't choose the flawless. He chose ordinary people with doubts and pasts. And He still does. The Holy Spirit gives courage, clarity, and love to help us live and speak in ways that reveal Jesus—starting right where we are.

PRAYER:

Lord Jesus, Thank You for entrusting us with the privilege of bearing witness to Your truth and grace. We humbly ask that You fill us afresh with the power of Your Holy Spirit. Grant us boldness to speak, wisdom to live with integrity, and love that reflects Your heart. May our lives point others to You—in our homes, our communities, and to the ends of the earth. Amen

PERSONAL REFLECTION:

Where has God placed me that might be my “Jerusalem”—the place to begin living as His witness?

What part of my story could I share with someone that points to the goodness of Jesus?

GATHER AROUND THE TABLE

Why do you think Jesus chose ordinary people to carry His message instead of religious leaders or experts? What’s one way we as a family (or group) can be witnesses to Jesus this week?

A STEP DEEPER...

Read Acts 6–8

These chapters reveal how the early followers of Jesus boldly spread the gospel through sacrifice and Spirit-filled power, as God worked through unexpected people in unexpected ways.

DAY 4 – SATURDAY, MAY 31ST

IT IS BETTER I GO & WILL SOON RETURN

SCRIPTURE:

Acts 1:9-11 – "After He said this, He was taken up before their very eyes, and a cloud hid Him from their sight. They were looking intently up into the sky as He was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white stood beside them. 'Men of Galilee,' they said, 'why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen Him go into heaven.'"

DEVOTIONAL:

The disciples had just received a promise: You will receive power... and you will be My witnesses. Then, in what must have felt like both wonder and loss, Jesus was taken up into the sky—lifted from their sight, yet not from their lives. In John 16:7, Jesus had told them something mysterious: "It is better for you that I go away, for if I do not go, the Advocate will not come to you." His departure wasn't the end of the story—it was the beginning of a greater chapter. His physical absence made way for the Spirit's powerful presence. As the disciples stood staring into the sky, angels reminded them: He will return. We live between those two moments—His ascension and His promised return. In the meantime, we are not alone. We are empowered by the Spirit, entrusted with His mission, and anchored in hope. We don't just look up—we live ready.

PRAYER:

Ascended Lord Jesus, Thank You for the promise of Your Spirit and the hope of Your return. Help us to wait with faith, to live with purpose, and to walk in the power of the Spirit. Fix our eyes on You, and make us faithful in the time between. Come, Holy Spirit. Strengthen and guide us. Amen.

PERSONAL REFLECTION:

How do I imagine the disciples felt when they saw Jesus rise into heaven?

How does the promise of Jesus' return shape the way I live today?

GATHER AROUND THE TABLE

Why do you think Jesus said it was better for Him to go? What does it mean that we now have the Holy Spirit with us every day?

A STEP DEEPER...

Read Acts 9-11

These chapters show how the story continues after Jesus' ascension, as the Spirit empowers individuals, breaks barriers, and expands the mission by bringing the gospel to unexpected people.

DAY 5 – SUNDAY, JUNE 1ST

BE UNITED IN PRAYER

SCRIPTURE:

Acts 1:12-14 - "Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away. And when they had entered, they went up to the upper room, where they were staying...All these with one accord were devoting themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and His brothers."

DEVOTIONAL:

After Jesus ascended, His followers didn't scatter—they gathered. Before any miracles, before Pentecost power, there was prayer. Unified. Ongoing. Earnest. They weren't praying because they had all the answers. They were praying because they didn't. What held them together wasn't perfect understanding—it was shared dependence. And in that shared space, the Spirit would soon fall. Unity in prayer doesn't mean uniformity—it means hearts aligned toward the same hope. When we set aside distractions and come together to seek God, something powerful begins to take shape. God meets united people with uncommon power.

PRAYER:

Gracious Father, draw our hearts together as one. Teach us to pray with humility, expectancy, and unity. Where there is division, bring peace. Where there is apathy, stir passion. May we be a people of one accord—devoted to You and to one another. Come, Holy Spirit. Unite us in prayer and purpose. Amen.

PERSONAL REFLECTION:

What does it look like to devote myself to prayer—not just individually, but with others?

When is a time where I experienced true unity with other followers of Jesus?

GATHER AROUND THE TABLE

What keeps people from praying in unity today, and how can overcome it? Discuss and take a few moments to pray together.

A STEP DEEPER...

Read Acts 12-14

In these chapters, the early Church experiences both miraculous deliverance and growing opposition as the Holy Spirit empowers bold witness, sends out missionaries, and opens the door of faith to the Gentiles.

DAY 6 – MONDAY, JUNE 2ND

BE PURIFIED FOR PRAYER

SCRIPTURE:

Acts 1:21-22 - "So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22 beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us—one of these men must become with us a witness to His resurrection."

DEVOTIONAL:

Before the Holy Spirit was poured out, the disciples took time to prepare. Their first response wasn't action—it was alignment. In the quiet upper room, they devoted themselves to prayer and addressed unfinished matters of the heart and community. Choosing a new apostle wasn't just about filling a role—it was about restoring unity and readiness. They were making space for what God was about to do. We often long for the power of Pentecost without walking the path of preparation. But Scripture reminds us: the Spirit rests not on chaos, but on surrendered lives. The disciples weren't perfect—but they were willing. Their hearts were repentant, their relationships reconciled, and their eyes fixed on Jesus. Repentance clears the way. Forgiveness softens the ground. Surrender unlocks the door. Before God moves through us, He often moves in us—calling us to let go and purify the spaces of our hearts. When we do, we become vessels ready to carry His presence with joy and power.

PRAYER:

Holy God, we come before You with humble hearts, asking for cleansing and renewal. Where there is sin, bring conviction. Where there is disunity, bring peace. Prepare our hearts and lives for more of You. Come, Holy Spirit. Purify us for prayer and purpose. In Jesus' name, Amen.

PERSONAL REFLECTION:

Is there any unfinished business in my heart or relationships that need to be brought before God?

What might it look like to “get my house in order” spiritually?

GATHER AROUND THE TABLE

Are there ways we can better prepare our hearts or home to welcome the presence of God? What does spiritual readiness look like for our family (or community)?

A STEP DEEPER...

Read Acts 15-17

As the Church grows, these chapters show believers navigating internal conflict and external opposition while the Spirit empowers them to seek clarity, confront idols, and remain bold and devoted to truth.

DAY 7 – TUESDAY, JUNE 3RD

PERSERVE IN PRAYER

SCRIPTURE:

Luke 11:5-8 - "Then Jesus said to them, "Suppose you have a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; 6 a friend of mine on a journey has come to me, and I have no food to offer him.' 7 And suppose the one inside answers, 'Don't bother me. The door is already locked, and my children and I are in bed. I can't get up and give you anything.' 8 I tell you, even though he will not get up and give you the bread because of friendship, yet because of your shameless audacity he will surely get up and give you as much as you need."

DEVOTIONAL:

Jesus paints a picture of prayer that's bold, persistent, and even a little disruptive. A man knocks at his friend's door at midnight—not because he wants something for himself, but because someone else is in need. He keeps knocking, not because it's polite, but because it's urgent. This is the kind of prayer Jesus invites us into: not timid or formulaic, but tenacious. Shameless audacity. Not because God is reluctant to give, but because persistence shapes us into people who truly seek. Prayer isn't just about outcomes—it's about relationship. The more we knock, the more we discover who God is and how deeply He welcomes us. So we keep knocking. We keep asking. Not because we are trying to wear God down, but because we trust He hears—and He answers.

PRAYER:

Faithful Father, teach us to pray with boldness and persistence. Give us the courage to keep asking, even when answers delay, and the humility to seek not just Your gifts, but Your heart. May our prayers rise with faith and expectancy. Come, Holy Spirit. Strengthen us to persevere. Amen.

PERSONAL REFLECTION:

When have I felt tempted to give up in prayer? What helped me to keep going?

What situation in my life needs the kind of “shameless audacity” Jesus describes?

GATHER AROUND THE TABLE

Is there anything we’ve been praying for as a family or group that we need to keep bringing to God—together, with boldness and trust?

A STEP DEEPER...

Read Acts 18-20

In these chapters, Paul embodies perseverance as he remains faithful to prayer, teaching, and encouragement despite hardship—offering a powerful example of bold, ongoing dependence on the Spirit.

DAY 8 – WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4TH

“TAKE HEART, I HAVE OVERCOME”

SCRIPTURE:

John 14:16 - “And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Advocate to help you and be with you forever—”

DEVOTIONAL:

As Jesus prepared His disciples for the trials ahead, He gave them a word of comfort: You will not be alone. He promised an Advocate—the Holy Spirit—to be with them always. Not just when things were easy, but especially when things were hard. The Christian life doesn't come with a guarantee of ease. Jesus knew His followers would face fear, suffering, and uncertainty. But He also assured them: Take heart, I have overcome the world (John 16:33). The gift of the Spirit isn't just for guidance—it's for courage. He is our strength when the road is long and our peace when storms rise.

Whatever you're facing today, the Spirit is with you. You don't walk alone. And because Jesus has overcome, you can face anything with hope.

PRAYER:

Victorious Lord, Thank You for sending the Holy Spirit to be our Advocate and Helper. In moments of fear or discouragement, remind us that You have overcome the world. Fill us with courage and peace that does not come from circumstances, but from Your presence. Come, Holy Spirit. Be near to us in every trial. Amen.

PERSONAL REFLECTION:

What's one area of my life right now where I need courage or comfort?

How does knowing the Spirit is with me—forever—change my perspective?

GATHER AROUND THE TABLE

*Jesus said, "Take heart, I have overcome the world."
What are some ways we've seen God help us overcome difficulty or fear?*

A STEP DEEPER...

Read Acts 21-23

In these chapters, Paul begins his final journey to Jerusalem, facing arrest, false accusations, and danger—yet he testifies boldly, reminding us that the Spirit gives courage to endure and that God's presence goes with us through every trial.

DAY 9 – THURSDAY, JUNE 5TH

WAITING FOR THE PROMISED HOLY SPIRIT

SCRIPTURE:

Acts 2:1 - “When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place.”

DEVOTIONAL:

Waiting rarely feels easy—but in the upper room, the waiting was holy. Jesus had told them to stay in Jerusalem until they received the promised Holy Spirit. So they did. Not passively, but prayerfully. Together. Expectant. Trusting that what He said, He would do. So much of the Christian life happens in this kind of space—between promise and fulfillment. The temptation is to rush ahead or grow weary, but God meets those who wait with hearts turned toward Him. Pentecost didn’t come because they earned it. It came because they waited in faith. And the same Spirit who came then is still being poured out today—for those willing to pause, pray, and believe.

PRAYER:

Faithful Father, teach us to wait with expectant hearts. When we grow weary, fill us with renewed trust in Your timing and promises. Prepare us for all You desire to do in and through us. Come, Holy Spirit. We are waiting for You. Amen.

PERSONAL REFLECTION:

How do I typically respond in seasons of waiting?

What is something I am asking God to do—and am willing to wait on?

GATHER AROUND THE TABLE

*What does it look like to “wait well” as a family or group?
How can we encourage each other to keep trusting God in the waiting?*

A STEP DEEPER...

Read Acts 24-26

As Paul waits in prison, he boldly testifies before rulers and kings, showing that seasons of waiting can become powerful moments of witness when we remain anchored in God's promises and led by the Spirit.

DAY 10 – FRIDAY, JUNE 6TH

THE OUTPOURING OF THE SPIRIT

SCRIPTURE:

Acts 2:2-4 - “Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.”

DEVOTIONAL:

Pentecost came suddenly—but not without preparation. After ten days of waiting, praying, and uniting their hearts, the disciples were filled with the promised Holy Spirit. Wind, fire, and uncontrollable praise marked the moment—but more than that, God Himself came to dwell within His people. The Spirit didn’t come as a distant force but as a personal presence—filling each one. No one was left out. From that moment on, ordinary people became carriers of divine power and messengers of a transforming gospel. Pentecost wasn’t the end of the story. It was the beginning. And the same Spirit who filled the room that day is still being poured out on all who are open to receive. We don’t earn the Spirit. We simply make room—and say yes.

PRAYER:

Holy Spirit, We welcome You. Thank You for coming with power and presence, for filling hearts and transforming lives. As You filled the disciples at Pentecost, fill us today. Let Your fire purify us, and Your wind move us into bold obedience. May our lives reflect Your glory and carry Your love to the world. Come, Holy Spirit. We are Yours. Amen.

PERSONAL REFLECTION:

How have I experienced the presence of the Holy Spirit during these 10 days?

What might it look like for me to live as someone “filled” going forward?

GATHER AROUND THE TABLE

*What was your favorite moment in this journey together?
How can we keep living as people led and empowered by the Spirit beyond today?*

A STEP DEEPER...

Read Acts 27-28

Paul’s final journey to Rome is filled with storms, shipwrecks, and survival—but through it all, the Spirit sustains and leads him. These closing chapters remind us: even in difficulty, the Spirit’s power is with us. The mission continues, and God is faithful to the end.

INVITATION TO SURRENDER & NEW LIFE

Thank you for walking with us through these 10 days leading up to Pentecost. Throughout this journey, we've witnessed how God pours out His Spirit—not just on the strong or the spiritual, but on anyone who is open to receive. Perhaps something has stirred in you along the way—a longing for more, a glimpse of God's nearness, or a quiet invitation to surrender.

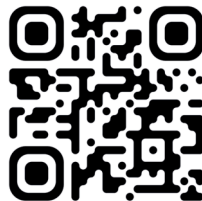

Jesus came not only to teach or inspire, but to give His life so we could be made new. He died for our sin, rose again in power, and now offers His very Spirit to dwell within us. If you're sensing the call to fully entrust your life to Jesus—or to return to Him in a fresh way—we invite you to respond.

Below is a simple prayer of surrender. There's nothing magical in these words—it's about the posture of your heart. If you're ready, let this be your next step.

PRAYER OF SURRENDER

Jesus, I believe You are the Son of God—sent in love, full of truth, and alive forever. Thank You for giving Your life for mine. Today, I surrender. I lay down my sin, my striving, and anything that takes Your place in my life. I bow my heart to You as my Savior and King. Fill me with Your Holy Spirit. Lead me in Your ways. Help me to walk in Your love, truth, and power—every day. I choose to trust You, follow You, and live for Your glory. In Your name, Jesus, I pray. Amen.

If you've made a fresh commitment to Jesus, we want to walk with you on this journey. Scan the QR code on this page to share what God is doing in your life. We'd love to support, encourage, and pray for you as you take this next step.

Conclusion

This devotional is a gift from PentecostATL, a movement of unity, revival, and Kingdom collaboration at the heart of Atlanta. More than just an event, PentecostATL is an annual Pentecost Sunday gathering that draws churches from across the city—crossing racial, denominational, and cultural lines—to lift high the name of Jesus and welcome a fresh outpouring of the Holy Spirit. It's a space where those seeking hope, healing, and truth can encounter the living God, where followers of Jesus unite in worship and intercession, and where the fire of Pentecost is rekindled for a new generation.

As we remember the gift of the Spirit, we long to see lives transformed, churches ignited, and Atlanta awakened to the glory of God. Whether you're exploring faith or have walked with Jesus for years, we invite you to be part of what God is doing in our city.

Join us on Sunday, June 8 at 6 PM in the courtyard of Tower Place (3365 Piedmont Rd NE, Atlanta, GA 30305) as we seek the Lord together. Scan the QR code to let us know you're coming—we'd love to welcome you with open arms and a heart of worship.

NOTES

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for handwritten notes. The box is filled with a light blue color.
