III. Message: Intro to Conversations Series/The Trinity Talks

I. Introduction to Series (Hazen)

II. The Trinity Talks (Hannah)

1. The Divine Dialogue of Creation

- Scripture: Genesis 1:1-3 – The Spirit hovering, the Father speaking, the Word creating.
- Connection to Proverbs 8:30-31 – Wisdom (often interpreted as Christ) delighting in the creation alongside the Father.
- Key Reflection: Creation is not merely an act of power; it is an overflow of relational love and communion within the Trinity.

2. The Divine Dance – Perichoresis:

- Scripture: John 1:1 – The Word was with God, and the Word was God.
- Key Concept: Perichoresis – the mutual indwelling of the Trinity as a dynamic, relational dance.
- Illustration: The image of the Holy Trinity by Andrei Rublev – an open table, an invitation to join the eternal conversation.
- Key Reflection: We are invited into this dance – not as spectators, but as participants in the divine rhythm of love and unity.

3. The Divine Affirmation: The Father Speaks, The Spirit Descends, The Son Receives

- Scripture: Matthew 3:16-17 – The baptism of Jesus as a public revelation of the Trinity.

- Key Point: In every instance of God's audible voice in the Gospels, it is a voice of affirmation toward the Son.
  - Illustration: Under the Oak Tree
  - Application: The Father's voice affirms our identity in Christ, even in the wilderness.

4. The Divine Intercession: The Son Speaks, The Spirit Sustains, The Father Listens

- Scripture: Romans 8:26-27 – The Spirit intercedes with groanings too deep for words.
- Illustration: Jesus' high priestly prayer, interceding for unity and communion among believers.
- Key Reflection: Our prayers are not solitary – we are joining a conversation that has already begun between the Son and the Father.

5. The Divine Suffering: The Son Surrenders, The Spirit Sustains, The Father Listens

- Scripture: Matthew 26:39 – Jesus' prayer in Gethsemane – “Not my will, but Yours be done.”
- Key Point: Even in suffering, the Trinity is in dialogue – the Son surrendering, the Father listening, the Spirit sustaining.
- Illustration: Jesus in the Garden (Hebrews 5:7)
- Suffering does not end the conversation; it deepens it. We are invited to join the Son in surrender, trusting the Father's will.

Conclusion: Take your Place in the Eternal Conversation

- The eternal conversation continues – not as a distant echo, but as an ongoing invitation to join in.
