

Week 1 of Legacy Series - August 17, 2025

I. Welcome!

If you are a first-time guest or you are wanting to plug in more to weekly virtual prayer meetings, our Wednesday night small groups, serving, or membership—Fill out our digital connect card to stay connected!

II. Announcements

New Wednesday Night Small Group Track begins this Week!

Grow deeper in faith and community this fall through our Legacy Formation Track! Virtual small groups will meet via Zoom on Wednesdays from 8:00–9:15 PM, running August 20 through October 22. See Hannah at Connections after service for more information

Pick up your Legacy Prayer and Scripture Guide in the Lobby after Service!

III. Message: He has Set Eternity in the Human Heart, Hazen Stevens

Living for Impact That Echoes in Eternity

Key Scripture: Ecclesiastes 3:11 — "He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the human heart..."

1. The God-Planted Desire for Legacy

- God placed eternity in our hearts — we are wired to live for something beyond ourselves.
- Gladiator quote: "What we do in life echoes in eternity" resonates because it reflects God's design.
- Biblical Foundation: God works through generations to accomplish His purposes.

2. The Problem — Why Legacy Is So Easily Lost

- Legacy is never automatic — it must be intentionally built, stewarded, and transferred.
- Biblical example: Three generations —
 - David — Built with faithfulness (Acts 13:36, 1 Kings 2:2-3)
 - Solomon — Started with wisdom but compromised (1 Kings 3:5-12; 11:1-8)
 - Rehoboam — Ignored wise counsel, lost the kingdom (1 Kings 12:14, 16-20)
- History and statistics show most legacies fade within a few generations.

Warning: Legacy must be intentionally built, stewarded, and transferred — it's never automatic.

3. The Solution — God’s Framework for Legacy

- God designed ordinary people to make extraordinary eternal impact through faithful stewardship.
- Key Verse: Luke 16:10 — “Whoever is faithful in very little is also faithful in much.”
- The Legacy Prayer: “God, make me a good steward of time, resources, relationships, and calling to maximize impact in this life and the next.”

4. The Four Pillars of Faithful Stewardship

Time – Psalm 90:12 — Number your days; invest with eternal intentionality.

Resources – 1 Chronicles 29:14, Matthew 25:14-30 — God owns everything; we manage it.

Relationships – 1 Kings 2:1-4, 2 Timothy 2:2 — Invest in eternal souls.

Calling – Acts 13:36, Ephesians 2:10 — Fulfill your God-given assignment.

5. The Eternal Principles That Motivate Us

- Generational Blessing – Deuteronomy 7:9
- Everlasting Impact – Daniel 12:3
- Eternal Rewards – 1 Corinthians 3:12-15
- Eternal Calling – Revelation 22:5

6. The Call to Begin

- David’s faithfulness blessed generations and pointed to Jesus (Matthew 1:1).
- Living with eternity in mind is not an escape from responsibility — it fuels our impact now.
- Prayer Challenge: Pray daily — “God, make me a good steward of time, resources, relationships, and calling to maximize impact in this life and the next.”
- Action Step: Ask God to show you one eternal investment opportunity this week.

7. This Week’s Challenge

- Daily Prayer: “God, make me a good steward of time, resources, relationships, and calling to maximize impact in this life and the next.”
- Reflection Questions:
 1. Which generation do you most identify with — David, Solomon, or Rehoboam?
 2. What would change if you believed your daily choices echo in eternity?
 3. Where is God calling you to steward more faithfully: time, resources, relationships, or calling?
- Action Step: Ask God to show you one eternal investment opportunity this week — a choice that builds legacy rather than just managing the temporary.