III. Message: Salt and Light— Hazen Stevens

Main Texts: Genesis 12:1–3; Matthew 5:3–16

I. The Pilgrim Pattern of Blessing

Genesis 12:1–3

Abraham modeled the pilgrim lifestyle that positions us for God’s blessing. To manifest gospel blessing we must be willing to leave what is secure and familiar, believe God’s promises through perseverance, and surrender blessings so others may be blessed.

“It was by faith that Abraham obeyed...” — Hebrews 11:8

Principle: Blessing flows through those who embrace the cost of obedience.

II. The Beatitudes: The Posture of the Blessed Life

Matthew 5:3–12

The blessed life is not the easy life—it’s the kingdom-shaped life.

Those who walk in humility, mercy, purity, and peace bring heaven’s blessing to earth. When we embrace the cost of blessing, we gain authority to release it.

III. Salt and Light: The Mission of the Blessed

Matthew 5:13–16

“You are the salt of the earth... You are the light of the world...”

A. Salt – Preserving and Purifying

- Salt prevents decay and draws out goodness.
- Our character and speech preserve the world.

“Don’t let evil conquer you, but conquer evil by doing good.” — Romans 12:21

B. Light – Revealing and Radiating

- Light drives out darkness and helps others see.
- Our good deeds reveal the goodness of God.

“Let your good deeds shine... so everyone will praise your heavenly Father.” — Matthew 5:16

IV. Five Ways to Be Salt and Light

1. Invite others – witness (Luke 14:23)
2. Pray for others – compassion (James 5:16)
3. Share your story – testimony (1 Peter 3:15)
4. Live with integrity – godly character (1 Peter 1:14)
5. Do good works – serve others (Titus 3:14)

V. A Challenge to Grow

1. Which of these five do you feel most comfortable with right now?
2. Which feels most uncomfortable or unfamiliar?
3. What’s one practical way you can grow in that area this week?

Practice it:

Share your story. Ask someone, “How can I pray for you?” Invite someone to church. Make an integrity adjustment. Serve someone in need.

“For once you were full of darkness, but now you have light from the Lord. So live as people of light! For this light within you produces only what is good and right and true.” — Ephesians 5:8–9 (NLT)
