III. MESSIAH: Part 2 — A Thousand Miles to Kneel, by Hazen Stevens

I. Two Signs of Christmas

- The Manger: humility, nearness, healing
- The Star: authority, kingship, allegiance
- Stop at the stable, miss half the story

II. A Light in the East

- Magi: scholars and kingmakers
- Journey up to 1,000 miles
- Star demanded action
- Long obedience, costly worship

III. A Threatened King

- Jesus likely a toddler
- Question: “Where is the King?”
- Herod: fear, control, violence
- Magi: worship

IV. Two Responses

- Magi: outsiders, surrender, tribute
- Herod: insider, threat, self-rule
- Jesus reveals what rules the heart

V. Why Kings Bowed

- Insiders reject, nations receive (John 1:11–12)
- Gifts reveal King, Priest, Sacrifice
- Jesus is Lord of all nations

VI. Savior and Lord

- Rescue without surrender is incomplete
- Manger and star belong together
- He heals and He rules
- Only a King reorders chaos

VII. Magi or Herod?

- “Later, not now”
- “This part is mine”
- “As long as it doesn’t cost me”

VIII. A Thousand Miles to Kneel

- He came to heal
- He came to rule and give purpose
- Surrender fulfills life (Matt. 16:25)

Final Question:

How far are you willing to go to kneel before the Lowly, Holy, Cosmic King?
