III. MESSIAH: Part 3 — Messiah: God in the Flesh Will Come Again, Hazen Stevens

The King Who Will Judge the Living and the Dead

1. The Story So Far

- Manger — the humility of God (Luke 2:7)
- Star — the surrender of the Magi (Matthew 2:11)
- Return — the coming Judge (Matthew 25:31–32)

2. The Child Who Is King

- A Child born, a Son given (Isaiah 9:6)
- Government on His shoulders (Isaiah 9:6)
- Manger and throne in the same story

3. Two Kingdoms

- Herod feared a King he could not control (Matthew 2:3)
- Pilate questioned the nature of His kingdom (John 18:33–36)
- A dying thief trusted the coming King (Luke 23:42)

4. First the Cross, Then the Throne

- Wounded for our transgressions (Isaiah 53:5)
- Returning in righteousness and power (Isaiah 63:1)
- The One who bore judgment will execute judgment

5. The Only Right Response

- Thomas's confession: "My Lord and my God" (John 20:28)
- Not admiration, but worship

6. Where History Is Headed

- The kingdoms of this world become His (Revelation 11:15)
- The Son of Man returns in glory (Matthew 25:31–32)
- The manger points forward, the cross stands at the center, the throne awaits

Closing

- He came in humility
- He is coming again in glory
- The question is not whether He is King
- The question is how you will respond
