III. Hunger for the Word, Hazen Stevens

I. The Heart of the Psalmist — Psalm 119

Right in the center of Scripture sits one of the most exultant passages ever written about the precious value of the Word of God. Psalm 119 is devoted entirely to love and longing for God's Word.

- “Blessed are those whose way is blameless...” (Psalm 119:1–8)
- “How can a young man keep his way pure? By guarding it according to Your word.” (Psalm 119:9–16)

The psalmist doesn't merely respect God's Word — he delights in it. He rejoices in it. He meditates on it. He hides it in his heart.

Question: When was the last time you felt this kind of longing for Scripture?

II. A Word Unlike Any Other

There is no other book in the world quite like the Bible.

- It is living and active. (Hebrews 4:12)
- In the beginning was the Word. (John 1:1–3)
- The Word became flesh. (John 1:14)

III. The Sword of the Spirit

- “Take... the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.” (Ephesians 6:17)
- “All Scripture is God-breathed...” (2 Timothy 3:16–17)

There is no spiritual growth or maturity without a consistent diet of the Scripture. None.

IV. Three Ways the Word Works in Our Lives

If you are not applying the Word in a regular way, you are without protection, without correction, and without direction.

1. The Word Protects Us

When Jesus was tempted, He responded with three words:

“It is written.” (Matthew 4)

He didn’t argue. He didn’t debate. He spoke what was written. The Word provided protection.

2. The Word Corrects Us

“You have heard that it was said... but I tell you...” (Matthew 5)

Jesus corrected wrong thinking with the right interpretation of God’s Word. The Word corrects our distorted perspectives and sinful patterns when we submit to it.

3. The Word Directs Us

“For I tell you that this Scripture must be fulfilled in Me...” (Luke 22:37)

Jesus let the Word of God direct the course of His life — even when it directed Him into suffering. The Word becomes our compass and our propulsion.

V. The Storms Are Coming

“Everyone who hears these words of Mine and acts on them...” (Matthew 7:24–27)

The storms came to both men. The difference was foundation. You cannot stuff yourself with the Word in an hour of crisis. You build a steady diet day by day.

“Be doers of the word, and not hearers only.” (James 1:22)

VI. Let the Word Dwell Richly

“Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly...” (Colossians 3:16)

We read it.

We meditate on it.

We sing it.

We study it.

The goal is not information. It’s transformation.
