

Resurrection Sunday: April 5th

I. Welcome!

If you are a first-time guest or you want to plug in more to weekly virtual prayer meetings, our Wednesday night small groups, serving, or membership—Fill out our digital Connect card to stay connected!

II. Announcements:

Encounter Service

Next Sunday, we are having our first “Encounter Sunday.” Similar to our worship and prayer Sundays, this will be a service with extended worship and room for ministering the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Come and be a part!

Break from Prayer and Formation: The next two weeks will be breaking from our normal prayer and formation cycles. We will reconvene the week of April 20.

III. The Blood that Still Speaks, Hazen Stevens

1. Before There Was a Cross, There Was a Doorpost

Exodus 12:21–22 — "Touch the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood... when he sees the blood, he will pass over."

The Passover was never about Israel's performance — it was about God's provision. The blood on the doorpost was the plan from the beginning.

2. The Life Is in the Blood

Leviticus 17:11 — "It is the blood that makes atonement by the life." Romans 6:23 — "The wages of sin is death." Hebrews 9:12 — "He entered once for all... by means of his own blood, securing an eternal redemption." Hebrews 13:20–21 — "By the blood of the eternal covenant... equip you with everything good to do his will."

Sin demands a reckoning. The entire sacrificial system pointed forward to One who would settle the debt — once, for all.

3. Something Powerful Changed

1 Corinthians 5:7 — "For our Passover lamb has been sacrificed." 1 Peter 1:18–19 — "Ransomed... with the precious blood of Christ, like a lamb without blemish or spot." Hebrews 7:27 — "He did this once for all when he offered up himself." Matthew 27:51 — "The curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom."

Jesus was not just another sacrifice. He was the sacrifice behind all sacrifices. What he did was enough — once, for all, forever.

4. Don't Be Ashamed of the Blood

1 Corinthians 1:18 — "The word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God." Revelation 5:6 — "I saw a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain."

Heaven does not move past the cross. Neither should we. The message does not need improving — only proclaiming.

5. Still Open. Still Available.

John 20:27 — "Put your finger here, and see my hands... Do not disbelieve, but believe."

Jesus kept the wounds open on purpose — not as a reminder of suffering, but as an ongoing invitation. The blood is still available.

6. Where the Blood Has to Go

1 John 1:9 — "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

It was not enough for the lamb to be slaughtered. The blood had to be applied to the doorpost. The question today: have you walked under it?

The Passover Lamb has been slain. The price has been paid in full. Consider today where you stand at the threshold. The door is open. All that remains is for you to walk through.
