III. The Holy Spirit Is a Person, Not a Power You Manifest, Hazen Stevens

John 16:12-15 (ESV) “I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. ¹³ When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. ¹⁴ He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. ¹⁵ All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.”

I. Manifestation Is an Ancient Lie Repackaged

- The idea that we can speak and believe things into existence is not new, it echoes the lie that we can be like God without God.
- Genesis 3:4-5

II. We Do Not Have the Inner Power to Produce What Is Good

- Scripture makes clear that though we desire what is right, we do not have the ability within ourselves to carry it out.
- Romans 7:18

III. The Gospel Makes Us Temples, Not Gods

- Through faith in Jesus, the Holy Spirit comes to dwell within us as a Person, making us vessels for God's work.
 - 1 Corinthians 6:19

IV. The Spirit Has Always Been Active from Beginning to End

- The Holy Spirit is present from creation to the final invitation, showing His ongoing role in God's work.
- Genesis 1:2; Revelation 22:17

V. The Spirit Is Received at New Birth and Flows Like Living Water

- The Holy Spirit is received by faith and becomes a source of life within us, not just a one-time experience.
- John 7:37–39; John 3:5–8

VI. Jesus Modeled Life in Constant Dependence on the Spirit

- Jesus lived and ministered through the Spirit, showing us the pattern of dependence we are called to follow.
- Luke 3:22; Luke 4:1,14

VII. The Spirit-Filled Life Is Ongoing, Not a Single Moment

- The disciples received the Spirit and were filled again and again, showing a continual need for fresh filling.
- John 20:22; Acts 2:4; Acts 4:31

VIII. We Are Called to Live Daily as Temples of the Spirit

- Our identity is that God dwells within us, and we are to walk in step with His Spirit.
- Galatians 5:16,25

IX. Being Filled with the Spirit Is a Continuous Way of Life

- “Be filled” means we continually depend on and seek the Spirit, not just remember a past moment.
- Ephesians 5:18

X. The Holy Spirit Leads, Teaches, Comforts, and Empowers Us

- The Spirit actively works in us and through us, guiding us into truth and strengthening us in every area.
- John 14:26; Romans 8:26

XI. The Invitation Is to Receive a Person, Not Create Power

- We are not called to look inward for power, but upward to Christ and outward through the Spirit's work in us.
- 2 Corinthians 3:18
