II. Announcements:

PentecostATL 2026: We have the honor of hosting Pentecost ATL this year—bringing churches from across Atlanta together for a night of united worship and prayer, seeking a fresh move of the Holy Spirit in our city.
Sunday, 5-7 PM, at Atlanta International School

Join us for 10 days of upper room virtual prayer leading up to the gathering!

III. The Gifts of the Spirit, Hazen Stevens

Key Scripture — 1 Corinthians 12:4–11 (ESV)

“Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit... To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good... All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills.”

The Big Idea

The gifts of the Spirit are not tools in a toolbox—but instruments in a symphony. The Holy Spirit is the Conductor. We follow His lead, play different parts in different seasons, and the One who wrote the symphony receives the glory. Multiple gifts can sound at once—harmoniously and seamlessly—producing something supernatural in a person’s life.

I. The Gifts Revealed — One Spirit, Many Expressions

The Spirit manifests Himself in different ways, but always with one source and one purpose.

A. Revelatory Gifts (Hearing from God)

Prophecy • Word of Knowledge • Word of Wisdom • Tongues • Interpretation

B. Demonstration Gifts (Power of God)

Gifts of Healing • Gift of Faith • Working of Miracles • Discerning of Spirits

C. Practical Gifts (Strengthening the Body — Romans 12:6–8)

Service • Teaching • Exhortation • Generosity • Leadership • Mercy

The diversity of gifts reveals the fullness of the Spirit—but unity reveals His nature.

II. The Gifts Operate — How the Spirit Moves

A. Relational, Not Mechanical

The Holy Spirit is a Person, not a force. His gifts flow from communion, not control. We don't access power—we walk with Him. (cf. 1 Corinthians 12:2)

B. For Edification and Witness

The gifts are given to build up the Church and reveal Jesus. They are never for self-promotion, but for the common good. (1 Corinthians 12:7 • Hebrews 2:3-4)

Caution: Spiritual power without surrendered hearts leads to distortion (Acts 8:20-21)

C. By Faith and Participation

Faith positions us to respond to what God is already doing. We listen, discern, and step out.

“...the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing.” — John 5:19

III. Faith in Action — When the Gifts Are Released

A. The Centurion — Faith that Recognizes Authority

(Matthew 8:8-10) Jesus marveled at faith that trusted His word without needing proximity.

B. The Woman — Faith that Reaches Out

(Mark 5:27-30) Faith expressed in action became the point of contact for power.

C. Malta — Faith that Multiplies Impact

(Acts 28:8-9) One act of obedience opened the door for regional transformation.

IV. Living the Symphony — Our Response

A. Recognize Your Part

Every believer has been given a manifestation of the Spirit. You are not excluded—you are included in what God is doing.

B. Stay Close to the Conductor

Sensitivity to the Spirit matters more than certainty in the moment.

C. Step Out When He Leads

The gifts are not activated by striving, but by surrender and response.

For Reflection This Week

- Which category of gifts do you most clearly see operating in your life right now?
- Is your pursuit of the Spirit's power relational—or has it become transactional?
- Where might God be inviting you to step out in faith this week?
