III. Spiritual Mothers: Praying Beyond the Story you can See, Hazen Stevens

BIG IDEA:

Prayer is labor. The Holy Spirit strengthens us to intercede not just for our own needs, but for cities and generations — and to see prophetically beyond the boundaries of our own story.

KEY SCRIPTURES:

1 Samuel 1–2 • Luke 1:46–55 • Romans 8:14–27

I. Prayer Is Labor

Galatians 4:19

- Prayer, at its deepest level, is a kind of birthing
- Things are carried, groaned over, and through that travail something comes into the world that would not have existed otherwise

II. Hannah: The Fervency That Moved Heaven

1 Samuel 1:10–16

- Hannah poured out her soul before the Lord
- Eli mistook her for drunk — only her lips moved
- James 5:16 — “The effective, earnest prayer of a righteous person is powerfully effective”
- This kind of prayer is produced by the Holy Spirit

- Hannah asked for a son → received Samuel, the prophet who would anoint kings

III. Hannah's Song: Seeing Beyond Your Own Story

1 Samuel 2:1–10

- Hannah's song goes beyond her personal story:
 - Thrones overturned
 - The hungry fed
 - The mighty brought low
- The prophetic dimension of intercession:
 - The Spirit prays through us things larger than our family, our season, and our story

IV. Mary: A Willingness to Carry What She Did Not Plan

Luke 1:38, 46–55

- Mary's yes was a yielded yes
- "Let it be done to me according to your word."
- Like Hannah, she understood that her obedience had a reach far beyond her own life

V. The Spirit Who Helps Us When We Don't Know How

Romans 8:14–27

- The Spirit of adoption cries "Abba" within us
- Creation groans, and we groan in hope
- "The Spirit himself makes intercession for us with groanings which can't be uttered"
- True intercession releases everything into God's hands
- Hannah released Samuel. Mary released Jesus. In their releasing, the world turned.

VI. Invitation: Becoming Spiritual Mothers and Fathers

- God is calling us to pray not only for our families, but for cities and generations
- Partner with the Holy Spirit in intercession
- Prayer is meant to become a constant conversation, not an emergency measure
- You are called to be a spiritual mother or father — yielded to the Spirit, birthing things in the kingdom of God
