III. Of One Accord: Discovering the Power of Unity, Hazen Stevens

BIG IDEA: Before God sent His power at Pentecost, He formed a people of one accord. Unity is often the preparation for the things God wants to pour out.

KEY SCRIPTURES: Acts 2:1 • Ecclesiastes 4:9–12 • Matthew 18:19–20 • Malachi 4:5–6 • Ephesians 4:3

I. Unity Hosts the Presence of God

Acts 2:1

"When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all together in one place."

- Before there was wind, there was unity.
- Before there was fire, there was one accord.
- Homothumadon = one passion, one mind.
- Unity didn't earn the outpouring, but it prepared the room for it.

II. Unity Is One of Heaven's Greatest Blessings

Ecclesiastes 4:9–12

Matthew 18:19–20

- Unity multiplies strength and effectiveness.
- Agreement creates spiritual momentum.
- The enemy often attacks through offense, irritation, and misunderstanding because division weakens what unity strengthens.

III. The Home Is the First Place Unity Must Live

1 Corinthians 2:16

"We have the mind of Christ."

- Unity is not just for churches; it begins in homes.
- God often reveals His wisdom as families seek Him together.
- A united home becomes a place of peace, discernment, and spiritual strength.

IV. Unity Creates Generational Momentum

Malachi 4:5–6

- God's heart has always been generational.
- Elijah carried the mantle; Elisha received a double portion.
- The goal is not preservation but multiplication.
- The next generation should inherit more faith, wisdom, and spiritual strength than the last.

V. Three Practices for Walking in One Accord

A. Practice Forgiveness Quickly (Ephesians 4:26–27, Hebrews 12:15)

- Unresolved anger becomes fertile ground for division.
- Bitterness never stays contained.
- Healthy families forgive often.

B. Build Shared Spiritual Rhythms (Ephesians 4:3)

- Unity requires intentionality.
- Read Scripture together.
- Pray together.
- Share what God is teaching you.
- Personal devotion is important; shared devotion builds unity.

C. Pursue a Vision Bigger Than Yourself

The Lord's Prayer

- Daily bread and kingdom vision belong together.
- God cares about our needs and His purposes.
- A larger vision makes smaller offenses lose their power.

VI. Invitation: Becoming a House of One Accord

Let's become a house united that stands.
